MUSIC

BY GEOFF BROWN

CONSTRUCTION SET™

ELECTRONIC ARTS™
DELUXE CREATIVITY SERIES

THE ULTIMATE MUSIC TOOL...

...FOR PERFORMING

Play any of the dozens of compositions included using the enormous variety of playback options:

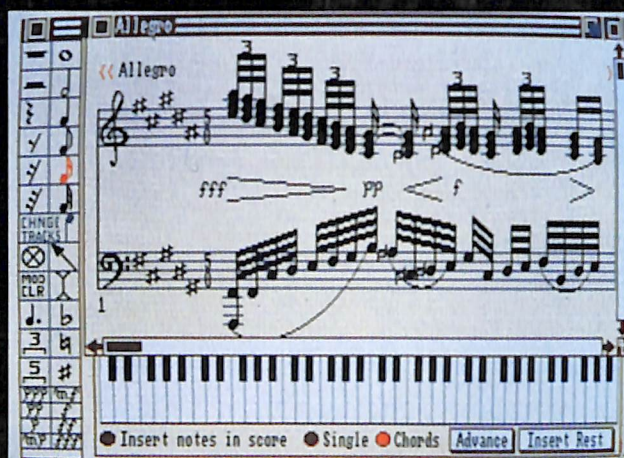

- Over 10 digitized instruments
- Multiple play styles like staccato and legato for each instrument
- Change instruments within each staff whenever you like
- Dynamic range from ppp to fff, playback speed from 1 to 240 beats/minute
- Onscreen player piano or flash notes
- 16 channel MIDI out to control MIDI instruments

...FOR PRINTING

- Reposition notes and chords for easy-to-read sheet music
- Stretch the space within, above, and below each staff—use up to 8 staves
- Parts printing onscreen or in printout

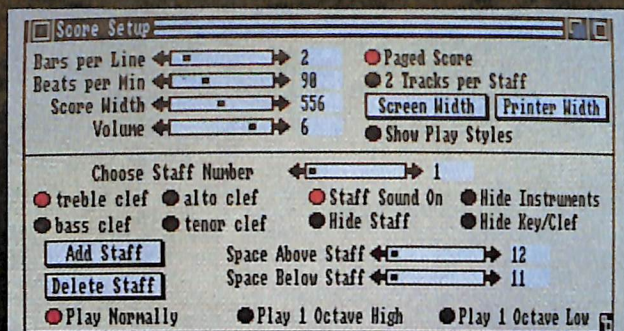

AWARDS FOR DELUXEMUSIC™ CONSTRUCTION SET

- Software Publishers Association 1985 "Best Sound" Award
- Family Computing 1986 Critic's Choice Award
- A+ 1986 Reader's Choice Software of the Year Award

POWER THAT'S EASY TO USE

Just point to the note you want on the Note Palette, click, then bring the pointer to the staff, click again, and the note is there. Or just point to the note on the piano keyboard and click. Making music is that simple.

You're the composer and the conductor. Change the tempo and volume of the music. Play the music an octave high or an octave low. Change the number of bars per staff, or the number of staves. Add or delete a staff, or just hide it. You're in charge.

...FOR COMPOSING

Complete input, editing, and notation:

- See and hear notes before you place them
- Grab and slide notes or bar lines
- Full Cut, Paste, and Copy music editing
- "What - you - see - is - what - you - get"
- Keyboard options for the entire note palette
- Multiple time and key signatures in a piece
- Repeats, 1st and 2nd ending, double bar and end-of-song
- Dozen of other musical symbols, including guitar chords
- Step mode input using MIDI keyboard or onscreen piano keyboard
